

Program

Digital Arts and Humanities in ethnomusicology
Arts et humanités numériques dans l'ethnomusicologie

Musée du quai Branly - Jacques Chirac, September 23-25, 2022, Movie Room

British Forum for Ethnomusicology
Société Française d'ethnomusicologie

In partnership with the Musée du quai Branly – Jacques Chirac
Free entry, registration required before 20th September 2022 at jetu2022@ethnomusicologie.fr

Friday September 23

14h00: Registration

14h30: Welcome to the Journées d'études MQB - BFE - Sfe.

Opening words by Marlène BELLY and Byron DUECK

15h00: Keynote – Raquel CAMPOS, Postdoctoral Research Fellow, University of Leeds. (De)Centring Music: Culture, Taxonomy and Content in the Streaming Era

16h: Break

16h30: Digital arts and social networks

Chair: Marie COUSIN

16h30: Aaron SINGER, candidate in ethnomusicology, University of Hawai'i, Mānoa. Eisa Around the World: Social Media Fieldwork in the Time of Covid

17h00: TUNG Yuan-Hsin, candidate in ethnomusicology and instructor of Chinese ensemble, University of Hawai'i, Mānoa. Indonesia's Wayang Potehi in the Era of the Covid-19 Pandemic

17h30: Yohann RABEARRIVELO, EHESS. Quand le musicien chercheur devient influenceur musical / When the researcher musician becomes a musical influencer

18h00 : Discussion

Saturday September 24

10h00: Long distance presence: fieldwork, teaching

Chair: Byron DUECK

10h00: Antoine BOURGEAU, percussionist, doctor in ethnomusicology, CTEL Associate Researcher (Université Côte d'Azur). Apprentissage et enseignement des musiques modales en ligne, le 'Labyrinth online' / Learning and teaching modal music online - the 'Online Labyrinth'

10h30: Don NILES, director, ethnomusicologist, Institute of Papua New Guinea Studies. True Echoes: Reconnecting Early Recordings with Papua New Guinea Communities

11h00: Thomas Anthony GRAVES, doctoral candidate, University of Durham. Online, Offline, and Squiggly Line: Flexibility in Planning PhD research on musical emotion in qawwālī during the COVID-19 Pandemic

11h30: Discussion

12h00-14h30: Lunch

14h30: Digital platforms

Chair: Marlène BELLY

14h30: Julie OLEKSIAK, ethnomusicologist, research coordinator, CMTRA ; Éric DESGRUGILLERS, documentation officer, AMTA. INFRASONS, archives sonores en partage : regards croisés sur la fabrique de patrimoines musicaux entre ethnomusicologie, acteurs de médiation et expériences habitants / INFRASONS, sharing sound archives: perspectives of ethnomusicologists, mediators, and local inhabitants on the creation of musical heritage

15h00: Marie-Barbara LE GONIDEC, engineer of studies, Ministère de la Culture ; François GASNAULT, conservator, historian, researcher, In Visu Laboratory. Rendre accessibles et valoriser les archives ethnomusicologiques du MNATP : ressorts et contours du projet Les Réveillées / Valorising and making accessible MNATP's ethnomusicological archives: ins and outs of Les Réveillées project

15h30: Eoin KEARNS, Musicology Research Master's student, Utrecht University, assisting at the Meertins Instituut, Amsterdam. Navigating ephemerality: the Irish traditional music archive during the Covid-19 pandemic

16h00: Discussion

16h30: Break

17h00: Keynote - Jean-Jacques BIRGÉ, artistic director, Perspectives from the 22nd century

Presentation of the project and film première Perspectives du XXIIe siècle (Perspectives from the 22nd century), co directed by Jean-Jacques BIRGÉ, Nicolas CLAUSS, Sonia CRUCHON, Valéry FAIDHERBE, Jacques PERCONTE, John SANBORN, Eric VERNHES, after the CD produced by Geneva's Ethnographic Museum.

Sunday September 25

10h00: Digital life of archives

Chair: François PICARD

10h00 : Simon DEBIERRE, Doctoral candidate, École Pratique des Hautes Études. Analyser pour réinterpréter ? L'exemple de l'air « Goélands et aigrettes sont oublious des fourberies » (Oulu wangji 鷗鷺忘機) entre archives sonores et manuels pour cithare qin 琴 de la Chine moderne et contemporaine / Analysis in order to reinterpret? Comparing the air 'Gulls and egrets quickly forget deceit' (Oulu wangji 鷗鷺忘機) in sound archives and zither (qin 琴) manuals of modern and contemporary China

10h30: LÊ Y-Linh, associate researcher at IHMC – ENS. Outils numériques dans la conservation de la musique : La collection d'archives du compositeur Hoàng Văn, Vietnam / Digital tools in music conservation: archival collection of the composer Hoàng Văn, Vietnam

11h00: Discussion

11h15: Break

11h30: Digital art in the studio

Chair: to be defined

11h30: Emmanuelle OLIVIER, Researcher, CNRS-EHESS; Amandine PRAS, Lecturer, University of York. Creative uses of digital audio technologies in Bamako recording studios

12h00: Ons BARNAT, Professor, Québec University at Montréal. En immersion audiovisuelle au cœur de la performance musicale / Audiovisual immersion at the heart of musical performance

12h30: Discussion

13h00: End of the conference

Access

Subway line 9 : Iena ou Alma Marceau station

Subway line 6 : Passy station

Subway line 8 : Ecole Militaire station

RER C : Pont de l'Alma station

Bus lines: 92-80-42-62, Bosquet – Rapp stop

The Musée du quai Branly has an accessible entrance on rue de l'Université

Information and registration: jetu2022@ethnomusicologie.fr

Cover illustration: detail of the record Music of Mongolia, published by Hisao Tanabe (1883-1984), director of the Asian Music Research Society, from the Greater East Asia Music Collection (Daitōa ongaku shūsei 大東亞音樂集成) published in 12 volumes on thirty-six 78 rpm records for Japan Victor Records in 1942.

